HAIRDRESSER RESET

“ Every client deserves a clean mental state. Learn the importance of transitioning, “reset,” from client to client. ”

This exclusive course by Phillip Rosado teaches the psychology behind positive interaction and focus allowing the stylist to start freshly minded with every client. Reset is a deep dive into the relationship between stylist and client. You will learn how to leave your client's story in the chair and reset for the next client, in a matter of seconds.

- Do you ever feel as if your client's negative energy impacts your day?
- Does the energy of your co-workers affect your day?
- Do you reset yourself after every client?
- Are you leaving your personal life “at the door” to better serve your clients, your business, and your salon companies?
- Are you absorbing this energy and taking this home, or vice versa bringing any type (good or bad) of energy into your work environment?

HERE’S WHAT THE RESET ATTENDEES HAD TO SAY:

Zoe W. says, “This class was so different from other classes, it allowed us all to connect on such a personal level. I feel as if a weight has been lifted and BeSpoke has a new energy, thank you so much.”

Walker O. says, “Dude, beautiful relevant content. We laughed, I cried, I felt acknowledged and included. The class structure felt simple, clear and authentic. Five effin stars, so many high fives, love you man!”

Jay Olsen. says, “Phillip Rosado has put together something so necessary for our industry. We are lead to believe from the beginning that being an artist in our craft is all bright lights and glamour. In reality, there is heavy pressure put on us not only every day but every guest. We as artists are never taught the foundations of how to deal with these pressures and how to look out for what’s most important (our feelings) Reset gave myself and my team at Bespoke the confidence moving forward to keep our heart and souls positive and healthy as we move throughout our day servicing by creating for our guests. I see the RESET course as the elevation of the artist from the inside out. And really, when we are at our best and happiest don’t we curate our best work? Put yourself first for once and reset.

Bio: Phillip Rosado’s personal mantra is “live in the moment, turning every interaction into a positive outcome mentally, physically and financially.”
